Reception 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.
CU-ICAR ♦ 5 Research Drive ♦ Greenville, S.C.

OESA invites automotive suppliers to attend “OESA Supplier Roundtable: Issues Impacting the North American Supply Chain” on May 19, 2011, at the facilities of CU-ICAR in Greenville, S.C. The program brings together industry thought and supply chain leaders to present and discuss the latest supply chain events and issues that impact suppliers. The challenges and opportunities that suppliers face now and into the future will be discussed in an open program of presentations and discussion.

The program will begin in the morning with a presentation and tour of the CU-ICAR facilities and research capabilities. Following lunch, Susan Brennan, vice president, manufacturing, Nissan North America, and president Southern Automotive Women’s Forum, will address attendees.

The afternoon program will provide attendees with the very latest on issues that impact and affect suppliers in the political, financial, legal and supply chain areas of their businesses. Presenters include:

- Michael Heneka, President, Faurecia North America
- Ann Wilson, Senior Vice President, Motor & Equipment Manufacturers Association
- Allan Kochanski, Restructuring Senior Manager, Deloitte Financial Advisory Services, LLP
- Laurie Harbour, President, Harbour Results, Inc.
- Tom Manganello, Partner, Warner, Norcross and Judd

Glenn Stevens, vice president, sales and membership, OESA, will moderate the meeting, and invite frank dialogue among suppliers. Discussion topics include challenges and opportunities suppliers currently face, as well as sharing issues and subject matter to be addressed.

To compliment the meeting, OESA and Upstate South Carolina Alliance, have arranged a special concert opportunity following the evening reception and an optional tour of BMW Manufacturing on May 20, 2011. Transportation is not provided.

Registration is available in the event section of <http://www.oesa.org>. For registration assistance, contact Felece Hickman at 248.952.6401 ext. 237 or fhickman@oesa.org.
